

uniting skills'

KEY FIGURES

Institut Mines-Télécom
Business School

AREAS OF RESEARCH

4 teaching and research departments

- › Management, Marketing and Strategy (MMS)
- › Law, Economics and Finance (DEFI)
- › Technologies, Information and Management (TIM)
- › Languages and Humanities (LSH)

2 research laboratories

- › LITEM (Laboratoire Sens et Compréhension du Monde Contemporain - Laboratory for Innovation, Technologies, Economy and Management); common to IMT-BS and Université Evry-Val-d'Essonne, it is part of the doctoral school of Université Paris Saclay)
- › LASCO (Laboratoire Sens et Compréhension du monde contemporain - Laboratory for meaning and understanding in the contemporary world)

5 cross-disciplinary research teams

- › Smart Business Information Systems: SMART

- › Connected Consumer in the Digital Society: CONNECT
- › Ethics, Technologies, Humans, Organizations, Society: ETHOS
- › Representations and Uses of Digital Devices: RUN
- › Dynamics of networks, innovation and knowledge: KIND

3 research chairs

- › Augmented Operating Room Innovation
- › Values and Policies of Personal Information
- › Good in Tech (Responsible Digital Innovation)

1 teaching chair

- › Digital Inventiveness (Digital creativity teaching)

PROGRAMS

- › Bachelor Management and New Technologies
- › Integrated Master in Management program (Master's level)
- › 2 Masters of Science
- › 4 Specialized Masters
- › Executive Master «AI for innovative managers»
- › Doctorate in Management Sciences in collaboration with the University of Évry Val-d'Essonne and Paris Saclay University

INSTITUT MINES-TELECOM BUSINESS SCHOOL IN FIGURES

- › Created in 1979
- › 24 M€ budget
- › Dual accreditation AACSB AMBA
- › 13 double degrees in engineering-management
- › 1,500 students
- › 200 apprentices
- › 64 permanent faculty
- › +130 partner universities in +45 countries
- › 33 PhD students
- › Hiring salary (France): €41,623
- › 200 companies and over 2,500 jobs created by the incubator's startups
- › 5,000 jobs created by IMT-BS graduates
- › +8,000 alumni
- › 65 student clubs and associations
- › 900 on-campus student housing units